

Website Privacy Policy Statement

It is the policy of RAW4Youth and Rutland County Council to act in accordance with current legislation and to meet the current best practice on the Internet. Our aim is to be responsible, relevant and secure when using your data.

We never give out any of your personal information to 3rd parties, such as your name, postcode, email address etc. If we feel there might be something of interest or use to you, we will inform you ourselves using the details you have given. We do not log personal data via cookies, and we do not link any of your personal data with third parties.

Some of our services enable you to publish material on the internet. When you do so, be aware that other visitors to the website, human search engines and other automated computer programs may collect any data that you make public.

We collect data for the following purposes: Technical administration of the web site, to enhance your experience of the site, customer service and also for RAW4Youth and Rutland County Council promotion. If we wish to use your personal data for any new purposes, we will ask for your consent to such use in advance. We reserve the right to share your personal information if we are obliged to by law.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet is 100% secure. As a result, while we try to protect your personal information, RAW4Youth and Rutland County Council cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk.

If at any time you wish your information to be completely removed from all our systems, or if you just want to update any data we have about or from you, then please send an email to enquiries@raw4youth.com, or contact us by any other method below.

Please contact us by any means if you are in any way unhappy and we are sure we can resolve any problems or issues you may have. If you are not satisfied with our response you may wish to contact Data Protection Registrar who can be found at <http://www.dataprotection.gov.uk/>
